Manderley Turf Products Appoints Andre Notz as Sales Manager for Quebec Region

Notz brings more than a decade of experience to golf course and sports fields business

OTTAWA, Canada, January 24, 2007—Manderley Turf Products today announced the addition of Andre Notz to its turf solutions team. Notz, who currently is a sales manager for Manderley's landscape business, will also be responsible for the golf and sports fields business in Quebec. Notz brings 12 years of experience in the turfgrass business including six as a golf course superintendent.

"In addition to his perspective and expertise in the turfgrass business, Andre brings a great focus on customer service," said Chris Hope, president of Manderley. "His skills make him a sought-after manager and we're delighted that he has agreed to take on this new challenge."

Notz joins a dedicated team of professionals who have worked with and consulted on more than one thousand golf courses and sports field projects. During the past few years alone, they have supplied more than 400 acres (17.5 million square feet) of Bentgrass sod: the equivalent of 2500 greens. Manderley has nine locations throughout Canada; three in Quebec: Brossard, Ste. Foy and Laval.
