Manderley Announces Executive Changes

OTTAWA, Canada, July 30, 2007—Manderley Turf Products today announced that Greg Skotnicki has been appointed President of the company. Chris Hope, former President, assumes the role of Chief of Agronomy and also will lead Manderley's turf solutions operations. The changes are effective immediately.

Most recently, Skotnicki was head of Manderley's international division, which provides solutions and services to golf courses around the world. He brings more than 10 years of experience in senior roles of emerging companies. Prior to joining Manderley, he was VP Operations at Ionalytics, responsible for operations, manufacturing and supply chain management.

"Our goal is to continue to be the premier supplier of quality sod. This executive change allows us to broaden the skills of our management team as we continue to grow the business," said Skotnicki. "On behalf of the board and employees I thank Chris for his many contributions and look forward to working with him to further develop our turf solutions group."

Manderley is one of North America's largest turfgrass producers. For more than 45 years, Manderley has consistently proven itself as an industry leader in developing and delivering innovative natural turfgrass solutions.
